

Forum Decorum

Disclaimers: This site is for information and educational purposes only. Please follow the laws as applicable in your country. The authors/hosts/administrators/moderators of this site will not be responsible for any actions taken by the users. Do not break laws or violate the privacy of others. Using any of this spy gear may be illegal or unethical, depending on how and where you use it. If you're unsure, check the laws in your country and region, and consult your conscience.

Take safety precautions at all times and use safety protection gear such as safety glasses, ear plugs and gloves.

Registration to this forum is free. However, joining is a privilege, not a right. We do insist that you abide by the rules and policies detailed below.

You must provide a valid email address during your registration. You will automatically receive a confirmation email with instructions to confirm your registration. If you don't follow the instructions, your registration will not become active. Administrators and approved moderators reserve the right to approve or deny any forum membership request. All decisions are final.

We encourage all members to introduce themselves first so we can learn a bit about you, where you're from, why you decided to join us and give us the opportunity to officially welcome you to our community.

Although the administrators and moderators of LucidScience.com Forum will attempt to keep all objectionable messages off this forum, it is impossible for us to review all messages, pictures, links and signatures. We do take concerns and complaints from our members who are in good standing in our community very seriously and we investigate each one thoroughly.

All messages express the views of the author, and neither the owners of LucidScience.com, nor the developers, owners, hosts, representatives, agents, representatives, and suppliers of this forum software and web site will be held responsible for the content of any message.

By agreeing to these rules, you warrant that you will not post any messages, avatars, signatures, links and pictures that are obscene, vulgar, sexually-oriented/explicit, hateful, threatening, bullying, harassing, trolling, spamming, flaming, or otherwise violate any laws (also discussed under "Prohibited Activities" section). All offending links and pictures will be automatically deleted with or without notice to the poster.

Feel free to question ideas but please do not attack other posters. This forum is designed to be a discussion and exchange of ideas, so please keep in mind that other people's ideas may well be different than your own. This forum is non-threatening, fun and family friendly, so please keep it civil. There are plenty of online sources to engage in heated debates and intimidation tactics; our forum is not one of them. This is a place to exchange ideas and learn.

If a thread wanders off topic from the original post or posters engage in "them vs. us" rants, personal attacks, profanity, name calling, threats, trolling flaming, and/or in political, religious, moral or racial rants, etc., the moderators and administrators may close the thread with or without notice and may or may not provide a public explanation for the closure.

We are here to facilitate interesting and intelligent discussion concerning electronics based projects, not to act as referees between posters with opposing opinions.

Suggested discussion etiquette:

- Back up your arguments with facts. Where possible, facts should be supported by a link to a reputable Internet source.
- Back up your opinions with reasons. If you are expressing an opinion, please explain in detail why you have that opinion.
- We encourage funny and clever posts. Please don't take everything so seriously. We're here to have fun, exchange ideas and knowledge, not argue or engage in name calling, threats, participating in or promoting illegal activities.

The owners, administrators and authorized moderators of the LucidScience Forum reserve the right to remove, edit, move or close any thread, avatar, picture, link and signature for any reason at any time, with or without notice to the poster. We aim to keep this forum informative, clean and friendly.

Failure to abide by our rules will result in either one private notification to the offending member to comply within a specific time period after which the offensive material(s) will be deleted without further notice to the member, or automatic deletion of the offender's account, as well as offensive posts. All decisions by administrators and moderators are final.

If you do not wish to abide by these basic rules and etiquette, do not join our forum.
